

My grandpa. My grandpa is currently 85 years old. He recently had an accident in the barn, but before that, watchout. He had a golf game like you would believe, and a work ethic bigger than most 30 year olds. He has a heart of gold and always seems to make it on the good side of everyone. A man that knows his ways around the cattle business and got me started.